

Principals Reading Night at the Wheaton Public Library

Time: 7:00-8:40 PM

Date: Thursday, January 24th

Washington School Principal, Sandy Niemiera will be reading in the Children's Library from 7:50-8:10 PM.

Please stop by and listen to District 200 Superintendent, Dr. Richard Drury read in the Children's Library from 7:50-8:10 PM.

To promote literacy development and partnerships in the community, many local principals and administrators are pleased to participate in the Principals Reading Night sponsored by the Wheaton and Warrenville public libraries. Please come and listen as they read from some of their favorite books and selections.

*The Children's Library is in the lower level.
